

For Immediate Release July 2, 2013 Rick Rhyne Public Safety and Detention Center Carthage, N.C., The Moore County Sheriff's Office, Moore County Public Safety and 911 Center will open its offices in the new Rick Rhyne Public Safety and Detention Center on Tuesday, July 9th at 8:00 a.m.

Important information for the Moore County citizens is as follows:

.

The location of the Rick Rhyne Public Safety and Detention Center is:

302 South McNeill Street in Carthage, North Carolina.

.

The Sheriff's Offices are located on level two of this facility. Visitors should use the elevator in the front lobby to access the Sheriff's Offices.

.

The Moore County Public Safety Offices are located on level 0. Visitors should use the elevator in the front lobby to access these offices.

.

The Sheriff's Office will temporarily stop issuing gun permits and concealed to carry permits on Monday, July 8th. The issuance of these permits will resume on July 9th in the new facility.

.

The Moore County Detention Center and the Magistrate's Office will continue to operate in their current offices and will not move into the new facility until a later date.

.

There will be another Press Release around August 1st, providing information regarding tours of the facility.

For additional information contact Eli Arroyo-Allen, at the Public Information Office (910) 947-6363.

#####